3rd Annual Metro Atlanta Relocation Council (MARC) Educational Forum Held on February 10, 2005

Atlanta, GA – The Metro Atlanta Relocation Council hosted its 3rd annual MARC Educational Forum on February 10, 2005 at the Cobb Galleria Centre.

Approximately 95 attendees from various Atlanta area organizations participated in the event. The Forum began by feature keynote speaker Mary Jo Paloranta presenting Enhancing Potential – Influencing Success, which included discussion topics on maximizing personal and professional development, managing a constantly changing work environment and empowering oneself to achieve greater effectiveness and productivity.

There were also various breakout sessions throughout the day to incorporate other relocation topics such as Supporting a Global Workforce, Service Level Agreements and Relocation Matters.

The Metro Atlanta Relocation Council is a non-profit professional association committed to providing corporate and service industry relocation professionals the opportunity to meet and work together on a regular basis; to educate, learn and share knowledge and experiences about current relocation practices and emerging relocation issues in an effort to better serve and address the diverse needs of relocating employees and their families. Additional information on the organization can be found at www.marcatlanta.org.
